

Active or Passive voice

Identify if the sentences are in the active or passive voice:

1. Susan cleans her house every Monday. active/passive
2. The squirrel was chased by the dog. active/passive
3. The cake was baked beautifully active/passive
4. He drove his car off the road. active/passive
5. All the windows had been broken active/passive
6. His homework was eaten by the dog. active/passive
7. I love to watch scary movies. active/passive
8. The Mona Lisa was painted in 1503. active/passive

Rewrite these sentences in the Active voice:

1. The invitations have been sent out. (by us)
We _____
2. A surprise party was organized for my birthday.
My friends _____
3. Red Riding Hood was eaten by the wolf.
The wolf _____
4. The report was presented by the committee.
The committee _____
5. French and English are spoken in Canada.
People speak _____

Active or Passive voice

Identify if the sentences are in the active or passive voice:

1. Susan cleans her house every Monday. active/passive
2. The squirrel was chased by the dog. active/passive
3. The cake was baked beautifully active/passive
4. He drove his car off the road. active/passive
5. All the windows had been broken active/passive
6. His homework was eaten by the dog. active/passive
7. I love to watch scary movies. active/passive
8. The Mona Lisa was painted in 1503. active/passive

Rewrite these sentences in the Active voice:

1. The invitations have been sent out. (by us)
We have sent out the invitations.
2. A surprise party was organized for my birthday.
My friends organized a surprise party for my birthday.
3. Red Riding Hood was eaten by the wolf.
The wolf ate little Red Riding Hood.
4. The report was presented by the committee.
The committee presented the report.
5. French and English are spoken in Canada.
People speak French and English in Canada.